

Dear Families,

We are reflecting upon this special time of year and getting ready to celebrate Harvest together. For Christians, harvest is a time to give thanks to God for the good things he provides, and to remember that many people do not have as much as they do. It's also a time to reflect on what we have, and to pray for those who are less fortunate.

As part of this, we are collecting donations on behalf of the Foodbank. Mrs Montgomery has shared a list of items of which the foodbank are in particular need, as follows:

- Long-life Puddings, eg. sponge puddings, angel delight, pots of fruit in jelly
- Snack foods, eg. cereal/breakfast bars, savoury crackers, crisps, chocolate bars
- Long-life Juice
- Instant coffee
- Tins of rice pudding & custard
- Sauces, eg. tomato ketchup, mayonnaise
- Jam
- Tinned meat
- Tea bags (80 bag pack size preferred)
- Biscuits
- Tinned fruit
- Multipurpose cleaning spray
- Toilet Cleaner (no bleach please)
- Wet & dry cat food
